

Press Release:

Contact: Kae B. Wright
704.732.9044

Paul C.Rhyne Art Competition Winners

The Arts Council of Lincoln County announces the 2012 winners for the Paul C. Rhyne Art Competition

Best of Show	"Self Portrait"	by Robert Webb
First Place	"Home in Vale: Day Study"	by Tina Boyles
Second Place	"Slab Vase"	by David Bellar
Third Place	"Mistress Mary Eves Flora"	by Brenda Bostian
HM # 1	"The Court House"	by Faisal Yousef
HM # 2	"Untitled # 561"	by C.M. Kakassy
HM # 3	"Yan Ying"	by Donald R. Olsen
HM # 4	"Orchids and Feathers"	by Almajohn
HM # 5	"Jackie Robinson Drawing"	by Heather Crawley

The Paul C. Rhyne Art Competition is an annual exhibition for the ACLC, which was renamed in 2007 in honor and memory of Paul C. Rhyne a lifelong resident of Lincolnton and supporter of the arts council.

The exhibit includes sixty one entries from Hickory, Gastonia, Clover SC, Mt. Holly, Denver and Lincolnton.

The public is invited to view the exhibit in the galleries of the Lincoln Cultural Center located at 403 East Main Street in Lincolnton. The exhibit will be on display through October 28th.

Left to Right: Faisal Yousef, Heather Crawley, C.M. Kakassy, Donald R. Olsen, Robert Webb, Tina Boyles, Brenda Bostian and David Bellar. Not pictured is Almajohn.

