For an application to be considered complete, two-thirds of the listed property owners must sign the petition below (Attach separate sheet if necessary).

By signing this application/petition below, I agree to abide by whatever road name is assigned to that road by the Ordinance Administrator or his designee. I have been apprised of the choices that have been listed on this form and agree to their consideration as a name for this road. I understand that there is a fee that must be paid for the road sign blade, post, and bracket, and that this fee must be paid before the sign will be posted. I also understand that naming this road may change my address depending on how my home is situated in relation to this road.

Cross blades will be required at most roadway intersections. The fee for the installation of sign blades (including the post and bracket) is $100.00 per sign blade and is to be paid to the Planning & Inspections Department of Lincoln County prior to installation. (Price is subject to change due to cost of material)

I, _____ certify that the above information is true and accurate.
